

The Continents States University
2021

Tuition and Fees Policy
Statement for State of Missouri Residents

Resident Fee Policy:

The Continents States University shall not charge any form of tuition and fees to all residents of the state of Missouri.

The university offering its services as an eleemosynary organization, and these services shall be at no cost.

The Continents States University has the right to verify students' physical addresses through proof of address requirements.

Tuition and Fees Schedule:

Admission Application fee	$0
Course attendance fee	$0
Acceptance fee for undergraduate courses	$0
Graduation costs for baccalaureate and graduate programs	$0
Credit transfer fee	$0
Personal development courses fee	State residents not eligible to take these courses (Offred by third-party provider).

The students have the right to contact the Missouri Department of Higher Education & Workforce Development about any complaint with this institution.

Accreditation and Employment

The Continents States University is accredited by the internationally recognized accrediting body in the UK and overseas. We cannot guarantee employment, salary, career advancement and/or credit transfer to other schools. Moreover, institutions do have the right to accept or deny the credit transfer from our institution.

USDOE does not recognize ASIC. However, ASIC is a recognized accrediting body in the UK and overseas. They are UK government-approved accrediting agency, and their accreditation scope includes international universities.