DEGREE PROGRAMS

1

Master Of Science In Business Administration (MSBA)

The Master of Science in Business Administration (MSBA) program is designed for professionals aiming for management roles, students wanting to start their own businesses, and those seeking success in the business world. The MSBA helps students, entrepreneurs, and business owners improve their knowledge in business, finance, economics, management, and marketing. Its mission is to prepare students for leadership positions in public and private institutions.

2

Master Of Arts In Organizational Leadership (MAOL)

A multi-faceted degree focuses on an organization's mission, values, and goals. Modern organizations, both small and large, have complex relationships with employees, customers, suppliers, and service vendors. A successful leader must enhance the organization's performance while addressing the needs and values of the owners. Those who intentionally lead the interplay of personal, organizational, and societal influences create the foundations for success.

Master Of Science In Healthcare Administration (MSHA)

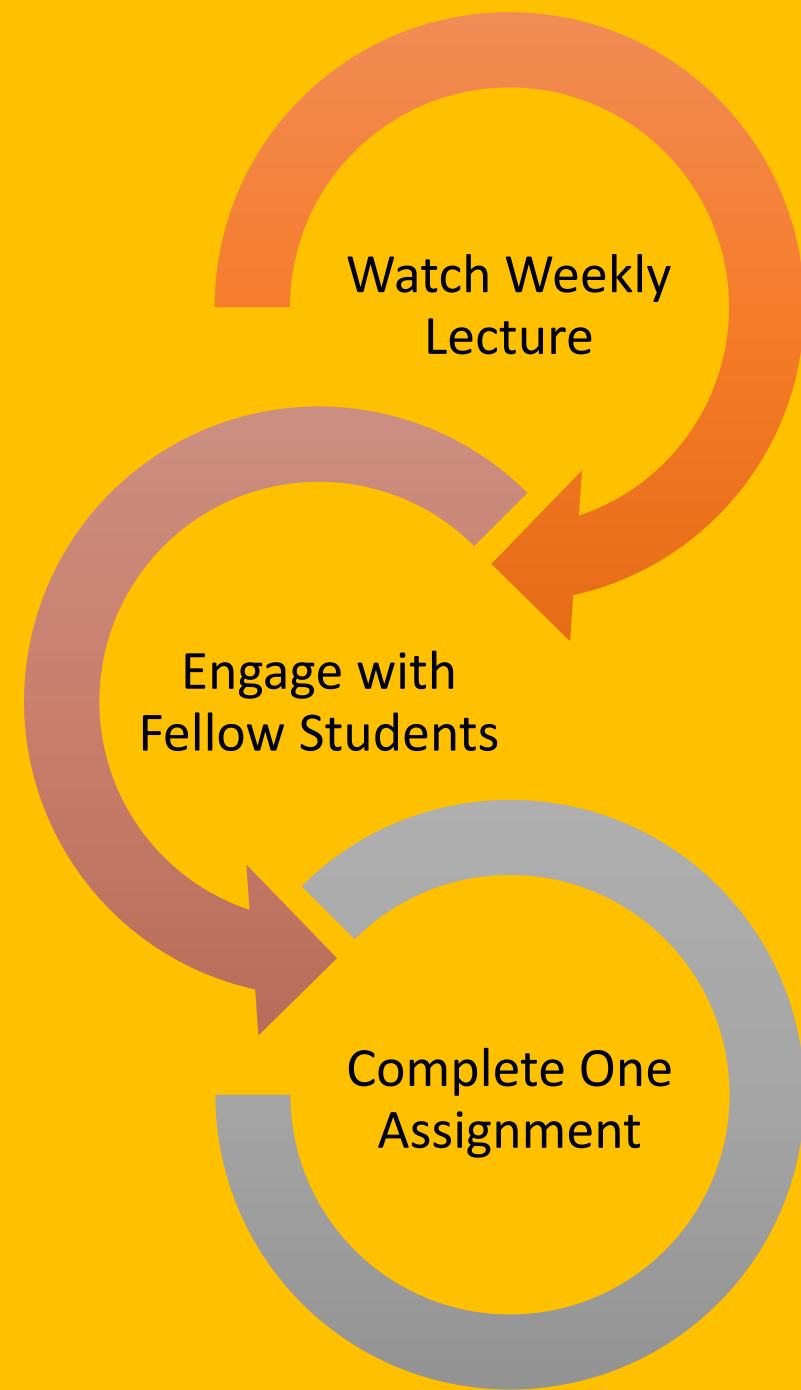

The Master of Science in Healthcare Administration prepares individuals to work with specific populations and communities, focusing on improving awareness, education, policy, and research. Unlike many other advanced management degrees, this program allows students to specialize in healthcare administration, tackle healthcare policies and medical statistics, and gain practical experience. It provides an advanced understanding of the core disciplines of healthcare administration and the opportunity to deepen knowledge in a specific area.
